

A Message from Leonardo Da Vinci.

Discussion Group.

This discussion group follows viewing "The Secret".

Do you see this potential for change, such change as does come via the matrix of unified energies structured for total understanding? Its so important you all see this as vital, an expenditure of love given out to all. Why when all have their own connection to God is it necessary to promote, enliven and heal the masses of past negative consciousness? Because you, each one of you is a potential power house. Each one unique, each having prior history and lifetimes of observation of this collective restriction, and in your own way acting this out, time after time, and this wheel of life so very liberating for a few, is but a downward spiral for the many without additional help to shift what has been misinformation and destructive restrictions upon humanity striking out on their own divine connection.

It has been said I as Leonardo Da Vinci in my lifetime held great annoyance with the Holy family. Not so! Quite a misjudgment of my intent, which has only ever been as a seeker of truth, without contamination and restructuring to hold humanity under the thumb of differential energies to honour systems of religion, unworthy in my opinion of speaking the name God.

Such has been the distinguished view of my life in others eyes, that I was a skeptic and one who dishonored the Holy family. In every way wrong! With my limited ability to speak out to gain a vision of life through which others could identify truth and sift through the miasma and plethora of mixed writings given as the Holy text, in my own words did I seek to give hints of truths, and never have I not totally loved and honored Christ and His Beloved Family. Not once have I ever worked against truth, no indeed not! Perhaps the greatest assumption of my skepticism of religious law would be those works given into the public view whereby the hidden truths were there, but discreetly so . . . to allow truth to seek through as the mass consciousness grew in understanding and slipped out of the yolk of religious oppression, enough to see that this is as true. Christ was indeed honored, but resented by me was manipulation of truth - misinformation given to return power to a heavily patriarchal Church based dogmatic system of government by oppression.

Until this time, the yolk of this oppression had not slipped sufficiently to relay truths not now hidden and to be revealed in works of art, the premise being, truths no longer will be hidden from view.

Now this time frame has come full circle, and in this doorway of opportunity that which is most dear to my heart can be revealed . . . love and total honouring of the Divine, of the perfection of God's design. Life in general will never be the same for many people who now break free from the confines of complicit thinking and structured rigidity.

Hence the secret being revealed, Christ is with us again, here at a time to be given to no one, not his lineage, not his time or place of birth or country. Truth is here in a light so gentle it is now restructuring this gateway of time, space continuum to align all energies.

Why should this be shared here and now and by me Leonardo, and not some church authority? because it has been my greatest of all blessings to have received this gift to give knowledge.

So it is you all now find yourself moving into a time of rapid change. Such changes as does befit souls of Divine lineage, and now each one of you are aware. . . awakening to the secret so long held quiet, that your divine lineage is still there for your awareness to grasp.

See this discussion group as the elemental group to form a core of activity whereby change comes, and from changes you create a shifting in your own consciousness, so to do you prepare and hold a sacred space open for he who is come. Still it is needed, years in preparation to his beholding the Divine Light in full, that the mass consciousness is raised and balance is restored.

Religious differences and those closed door policies and suppression of the Sacred Feminine cannot now hold sway. Christ is here, but he needs each person on this planet to generate love by connecting totally to the secret of their own Divinity.

Such are the times coming whereby this alignment takes hold, and it will be in increments energies are lifted to prepare the way.

Christ is here in human form somewhere on this planet. At which stage of evolution he has gained as in human years of human evolution is not now to be revealed. He will be ready when he feels his mantle, and is given this fully at a specified time.

This then is the subject for this discussion group . . . to speak about, the secret of your own divinity, for it is in taking this power fully and utilizing knowledge of such you will seek such a gift as does befit a son or daughter of the Creator.

Utilizing this knowledge is all important, for it is not to be used as in for personal gain alone, but the true message to be gleaned from this is, you are one with God, and so is every living being upon this planet you call home. Should you not then use this knowledge to shift the whole?

Open your eyes oh humanity, do not stay ignorant.

Glean from this truth to share with others. Discuss this great gift between yourselves and understand what a blessed time you live in, and such a time as to celebrate. My gift was to give this message, and sorely it was needed, an expansion of truth to be laid bare for all to see and share.

Avanti.
